

6.2 Lifespans of Common Structures

Across

2. Paper, plastic and metal can often be _____.
3. Baby items, when no longer needed, are often sold in _____ or rummage sales.
5. Some people feel that old buildings have historical and architectural _____.
6. Disposal of structures impacts the _____.
7. Instead of ending up in a landfill, organic waste can be _____.
9. Many products need to be _____ in order to maximize their useful lifespan.
11. Every product has a _____.
12. When a manufacturer deliberately designs a product with a limited lifespan it is called planned _____.
13. Recycling, reusing and composting are often a better end than a _____ site.

Down

1. _____ often dictates how long a product will be used. This is especially true of items like clothing and furniture.
2. Items such as boxes, jars and containers can often be _____ instead of being thrown out.
4. It is often quicker and less expensive to demolish a building and start over with new materials than to _____ an old building.
8. People have several ways of _____ of unwanted products.
10. Structures are _____ with their lifespans in mind.
14. The lifespan of a product often begins with an _____.